About Me

My name is Mr. Panjavit Oranpitiphan, and I am currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science at Kasetsart University. I have a strong passion for programming, problem-solving, and developing software solutions that can be applied to real-world situations. Throughout my studies, I have participated in various team-based projects, including database design, full-stack application development, UX/UI design, and the application of artificial intelligence. These experiences have helped me strengthen both my technical skills and interpersonal abilities, such as collaboration, adaptability, and user-centered thinking. Currently, I am exploring Node.js and web crawling technologies. I am always eager to learn new technologies and excited about opportunities to work in diverse environments where I can contribute value and continue to grow steadily in my career as a developer.
